

2024 Odorization Seminar

October 22 & 23, 2024

Columbia Gas Training Facility
1600 Eastgate Parkway, Gahanna, OH 43230

Schedule of Events

22 October

9:00am - 4:00pm

Regional Odorant Spill Exercise (R.O.S.E. Drill)

Presented by Chevron Phillips

John Beighle, Odorants' Technical Account Manager for The Americas
Dan Arrieta, Toxicologist/PhD
Mike Leathers, Equipment and Regulatory Adam Coffee, Fleet supervisor

After attending the R.O.S.E Drill, attendees will be able to:

- Understand the reason for natural gas and liquid propane gas odorization
- Identify odorant base components and odorant hazards
- Learn ways to reduce/minimize potential employee & environmental exposure
- Identify where to obtain hazard information
- Identify essential players in time of emergency situations

23 October

8:00am - 8:40am

Pickling

Shawn Jennings, Mountaineer Odorant & Pickling Specialists

8:40am - 9:30am

Monitoring Mercaptans Continuously with a GC to Ensure Proper Odorization from Incoming Gas

Bennett Rubin, Ohio Lumex

9:30am - 9:45 am

Break

9:45am - 10:15am

Overview of YZ's Aircom Telemetry System and Odorization-related Applications

Eric Schlaumloffel, YZ Systems

10:15am - 11:00am

Odorization After the Meter

Scott Laplante, Mulcare

11:00am - 11:15 am

Break

11:15am - 11:45am

Zero Emissions Odorization

Blane Ridenbaugh, Master Controls

11:45am - 12:15pm

Portable Odorization for Rapid Deployment

Steve Root, Mulcare